

TAVISTOCK RAMBLERS HOLIDAY 2019

YORKSHIRE DALES

For 2019 we are looking to return to the Yorkshire Dales and explore more of the delights the various Dales can offer.

We will be going for 7 nights on Sunday May 19th 2019 until Sunday May 26th.

Our base is the familiar Kearton Country Hotel in Thwaite. This will be our third visit to this excellent hotel and its scenic setting at the western edge of Swaledale, a few miles from Hawes. The accommodation will allow for up to 22 people including two single rooms, and a 3 course evening meal plus breakfast is included.

The cost will be £530 per person for double/ twin room sharing or the two single rooms.

Our walks will be organised by John B and Paul and aim to be between 10-12 miles each day. We intend visiting Nine Standards Rigg, Pen-y-Ghent, the Coast-to-Coast route from Keld to Reeth, and other scenic and, generally, moderate graded walks. The railway can be accessed just outside Hawes and we will use that on a couple of occasions to vary the areas visited.

The emphasis on this holiday will be the walking and so preference will be given to regular walkers in the group who want to enjoy the full benefits of such an ideal base for a fine walking holiday.

Please indicate your interest in coming, and the type of accommodation you would prefer by emailing John Brewer or Paul Brookes by April 9th.

We then intend issuing the booking details to those who have registered an interest so that a firm order with the hotel can be placed by May 2018.
